Man Killed, Seven Injured In Accidents

A 52-year-old Daly City man, Edward Rabitt, died at Fort Miley Veterans' Hospital Monday a few hours after he was struck by an automobile in Daly City.

At least seven other persons were injured in weekend county accidents.

Rabitt, an unemployed printer, was struck by an automobile driven by Hugh E. Kennon, 43, San Francisco, early Monday.

Kennon told Daly City police he was traveling south on San Jose Ave. when Rabitt, a pedestrian, stepped in front of his automobile at the Wilson St. intersection.

Kennon said he could not stop his car in time to avoid hitting Rabitt. Police did not cite Kennon.

Rabitt, who lived at 27 Wilson St., leaves a daughter, Mrs. Frances Goulden of Point Reyes.

Seven persons were injured, none of them seriously, in automobile accidents during the weekend in the unincorporated parts of San Mateo County, the California Highway Patrol reported Monday.

Norma Heck, 20, of 2026 Sand Hill Rd., Woodside, was hurt Saturday evening when the car in which she was riding rolled 30 feet into a ravine.

The car was driven by James R. Harvey, 20, a Stanford University student who lives at Stanford Village. The CHP stated that the accident occurred on Alpine Rd. which is marked closed, two miles west of Portola Rd. The car's right wheels ran off the road and caused the car to roll to the bottom of the ravine.

Mrs. Louise Vander Hayden, 32, of Pacific Manor, and her two children, Janis, 2, and Diane, 3, suffered cuts and bruises in a headon collision Sunday night on Sneath Ln., a quarter mile east of Coast Hwy. The cars were driven by Wilfred Vander Hayden, 32, and Erland R. Erickson, 48, of San Francisco.

John Comitio, 16, and Edward Blalock, 19, both of Mountain View, suffered minor injuries when the car driven by Wallace G. Bohn, 16, of Mountain View, skidded on wet pavement and overturned.

The accident occurred Saturday night on Coast Hwy., two miles north of Half Moon Bay.

Mrs. Rose Saso of Morgan Hill was bruised about the head and arms Saturday evening when the car driven by her husband, Anthony Saso, 36, was involved in a five-car rear end pileup on Bayshore Hwy.

Woman Boasts New Safety Mark

So a Redwood City man last week was awarded a certificate for having a "clean slate" as a driver for the past 25 years.

Well, a Redwood City woman isn't to be outdone.

Mrs. L. J. Lannoy, 69 Hudson St., sends in a clipping which the Tribune published last week telling about Leon A. De Mars, 428 Sequoia Ave., getting a certificate from California Star Drivers Inc. of Sacramento

Mrs. Lannoy writes:

"Of course it is news that Leon A. De Mars, a mere man, gets a reward for 25 years of safe driving.

"This is not unusual news, for I, a mere woman, have driven 30 years or more and have a clean slate, as you call it.

"The only time I have taken my operator's license out is when I have had it renewed."

Toastmasters Discuss Money

A discussion, "How I would Spend a Million Dollars," highligted the meeting of the Redwood City Toastmasters Club Monday night at the First Methodist Church. The round-table panel was led by Merwin Traver.

Panel speakers introduced by Chmn. Leroy Laurence included Robert Johnson, who discussed "Jets and Rockets;" Lloyd Ayres, "What's Happening on Lower Broadway;" Charles Baker, "Torture Chamber for Airplanes; Otto Burgmeier, "Does Redwood City Need a Swimming Pool?"

Pres. John Babcock welcomed Peter Bolich and Gerald Wall as guests.

David Grant of the Stanford University speech department served as critic.

Okeh Fire Truck For Redwood City

Purchase of a new fire engine at a cost of $13,011.69 was approved Monday night by the Redwood City council.

The truck will carry a water tank and will be used mainly to protect parts of the city with inadequate water mains.

P. E. Van Pelt of Oakdale was the low bidder.

Chief Joe Lodi noted that the low bid was more than the $12,500 set aside in the fiscal budget but predicted the additional funds would be available from overages in other departmental funds.

$150 FOR MISSION TRAILS

The Mission Trails Assn. will receive only the $150 next year from Redwood City that it did this year. Councilmen Monday night voted to reject an association request that the donation be increased to $200.

TACKLE BIG JOB — These members of the McKinley School Parent-Teacher Assn. went into a pre-game huddle yesterday before setting out to canvass the largest area of any local group as the Redwood City Red Cross drive got underway. The women above are Mrs. O. M. Naegle (sitting), who is colonel of the PTA solicitation, Mrs. R. E. Estes and Mrs. Jack McDowell. Twenty-six local groups, including several hundred volunteers, are engaged in the door-to-door compaign for funds.

Fear San Francisco Girl Victim of Amnesia Attack

A 15-year-old San Francisco girl, possibly an amnesia victim, was identified at Community Hospital by relatives after she collapsed late Saturday in La Honda.

The girl, Miriam Alaniz, a Notre Dame High School student, was in a nervous and hysterical condition and could not be questioned. She was to be released to her mother, Mrs. Caroline Alaniz.

According to an uncle, Pedro Gonzales, the girl Thursday morning was given 30 cents for bus fare to her school. Thursday afternoon she showed up in La Honda after hitchhiking there and asked at the La Honda Hotel for "Hazel Bates."

No one by that name could be found and she stayed at the hotel under the name of Marley Moore, until Saturday morning, while La Honda residents tried to find "Hazel Bates." She helped with the dishes at the hotel.

Saturday morning she packed a few belongings in a paper box and left the hotel on foot. She wandered around the area for several hours, apparently still searching for Hazel Bates. Late Saturday afternoon she collapsed at the edge of the road near the Johnson ranch and was taken to the hospital.

The uncle told deputy sheriffs that the only Hazel Bates known to the family is the mother of one of Miriam's girl friends who lives in San Francisco.

Shooting Victims In 'Fair' Condition

Mr. and Mrs. George Morse, seriously wounded early Saturday in a shooting affray at their home, have shown "some improvement" but their conditions still are only "just fair," Palo Alto Hospital reported Monday.

According to officers, Morse shot his wife, Virginia, 40; a family friend, Kenneth Hulme, 39, of Palo Alto; and then himself. He told officers he was "drunk and jealous." The shooting occurred at the Morses' Woodside home.

Hulme, shot in the back, suffered a flesh wound which was reported not serious.

Chief Criminal Dist. Atty. Fred Wyckoff said that none of the three involved in the shooting have been questioned since the preliminary interrogation Saturday morning. He plans to question Hulme Monday if the latter's doctor permits.

MP Chief Warns On Auto Parking

Menlo Park Police Chief George Potter Wednesday warned Bay Rd. market shoppers that parking on the left side of the road there while facing Willow Rd. is extremely hazardous.

He said officers will begin citing offenders soon. The practice is dangerous both when parking and leaving, Chief Potter declared.

He pointed out that there is ample parking space behind the market and also along the road if drivers will take the trouble to swing around.

Parking on rolling-curb sidewalks in the Belle Haven area is also dangerous, the police chief said, because if autos are too far up on the sidewalk children will walk in the street to get around them.

City Attorney May Aid Citizens' Bond Group

Services of the city attorney may be used by the citizens' bond committee without asking the city council, councilmen ruled this week. The committee is seeking to determine whether $150,000 worth of 1944 bonds can be left unissued to compensate for another $150,000 worth councilmen want to issue to pay for a sewage disposal plant.

SUGGESTED LENTEN READING

Lent, long observed by the Roman Catholic and Episcopal Church, now receives almost universal recognition as a period of study and prayer. The Redwood City Public Library has the following list of books which should appeal to all faiths:

MASTERPIECES OF RELIGIOUS VERSE edited by J. D. Morrison. This professor of preaching at Colgate-Rochester Divinity School has tried to bring together in convenient form the best religious verse that he was able to select.

THE CHRISTIAN OUTLOOK by K. S. Latourette. Basically optimistic, yet keenly realistic, the author finds Christianity in its most favorable position for new gains in the struggle for members and influence than ever before.

THE SEVEN STOREY MOUNTAIN by Thomas Merton. Autobiography of a modern Trappist monk, a spiritual odyssey as well as a personal history of our contemporary civilization.

THE LETTERS OF POPE CELESTINE VI by Giovanni Papini. Soul-searching letters of an imaginary Pontiff.

THE TEMPLE OF THE SPIRIT by Francis Meehan. A study of the spiritual values of life.

PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION by Fulton J. Sheen. Aims to show the relationship between human reason and religion.

AT THE END OF THE SANTA FE TRAIL by Sister Bl Landiva Segale. Southwest from 1872 to 1892. Letters to her sister who is also a nun tell the story of a courageous woman whose efforts were far beyond the call of duty in her educational and charitable work among the Indians and Mexicans.

THE OLD BEAUTY by Willa Cather. Combines depth of truth and beauty of style.

THE THREE BROTHERS by Michael McLaverty. An Irish tale glowing with life and the cherished warmth of living.

LATE HAVE I LOVED THEE by Ethel Manin. Skillful use of material from St. Augustine.

HEART IN PILGRIMAGE by Evelyn Eaton and Msgr. Edward Roberts Moore. Based on the full and interesting life of Mother Seton.

THE HEART OF THE MATTER by Graham Greene. "Surface appearances belie the facts of the heart of the matter."

2 High School Board Members File for Reelection Here

Two incumbents seeking to succeed themselves on the Sequoia High School board of trustees Tuesday filed for reelection, County Supt. of Schools Pansy Jewett Abbott announced Wednesday.

The two are W. W. Hilton, 140 Grand St., president of the board, and Morton Brewer, 257 Fulton St.

The school election will be held on May 20, according to Miss Abbott. Deadline for filing for school elections in the county is April 20.

Hilton and Brewer are the only two who have filed for election to the high school board, Miss Abbott said. Two seats on the board are up for reelection.

Hilton has been president of the board for the past year and is seeking his seventh term as a trustee. He has been a member of the board since 1931 and served as clerk of the board for 14 years.

He has lived in Redwood City since 1912 and has been in the jewelry business here since 1925. Hilton served as a Redwood City city councilman for six years and as mayor for four years. He did not seek reelection at the city election last Spring.

Brewer has been a trustee since April 8 of last year when he was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Stuart W. Copps who resigned because he was moving to Santa Rosa.

Brewer is a graduate of Sequoia High School and received his degree in electrical engineering from the University of California. He is now employed as a radio engineer for the National Broadcasting Co. in Belmont.

Members of the board whose terms are not up for reelection are Clifton Woodhams, Merritt Hosmer and Charles Burgess.

A Sequoia parents group which two weeks ago met in the supervisors chambers of the county courthouse to discuss the qualifications of possible candidates to run against Hilton and Brewer, has not yet announced its candidates for the two posts.

A series of charges made by the parents group against the board and the high school administration was answered Tuesday in an official statement from the trustees.

'Neat' Burglar Pays Repeat Visit to Store

Whisky-drinking burglars during the past 24 hours struck at two business places at the southern fringes of Redwood City, the sheriff's office reported Tuesday morning.

The same thief who broke into Pastorina's Store, 1705 Woodside Rd., a week ago came back for a repeat performance Monday night, Dep. Sheriff Paul Jensen declared.

The burglar, a neat crook who specializes in removing the entire pane of glass from a window to gain entrance. used the same method on the store both times.

However, after the first burglary, the owners installed a hasp and padlock on the inside, to supplement the spring lock. The burglar last night had to pry the hasp off with a bar.

Jensen said that the thief broke into the juke box, removing about $10. He also looted the store of nine bottles of whisky, 12 cartons of cigarets, several pounds of meat, $2.50 in pennies and some old coins.

The other burglary occurred at the Tonga Club, 2565 El Camino Real, and apparently was committed by a small man who climbed in and out through a small window.

The sheriff's office reported that the burglary was noticed by Richard Homan, the day bartender, when he went to work Monday.

A 9-inch by 13-inch window was broken, and two steel bars on the inside pried off. The burglar, after crawling into the cafe, found all the doors barred, so he climbed out through the narrow aperture.

He took two cigar boxes, one of them containing $1000 in payroll checks and $264 cash, and the other $45 in small bills and change.

The burglar overlooked a steel box which had in it $436, and another cigar box containing $261. He broke open two cabinets in the back room, and also tried to force open a liquor cabinet and a console type slot machine, the sheriff's report stated.

In addition to his money loot, the burglar also made off with six bottles of whisky.

VFW Planning Sinfonietta

Cpl. James Lindsay Wilson Post 2310, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, has authorized its civic activities committee under the chairmanship of Col. Louis Weiss, to arrange for the presentation of the San Francisco Sinfonietta in a concert at the Sequoia High School Auditorium Saturday, May 14.

Colonel Weiss reported that the concert is being arranged as a public service to create an awareness in the adult of the value of music as a stabilizing factor in their social life and that their encouragement of their children for music appreciation and participation, provide another possibility of limiting juvenile delinquency.

Stanford Adds Law School Prof

Sylvester Garrett of Philadelphia, nationally known labor law and labor relations expert, will join the Stanford faculty Sept. 1 as professor of law, it was announced Tuesday by Acting Pres. Clarence H. Faust.

Garrett, wartime public member of the National War Labor Board and its principal mediation officer, is now labor relations coordinator for the Libbey-Owens Ford Glass Co. and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

The duties of the 38-year-old lawyer include acting as chairman of the two companies' joint management committee in all bargaining conferences with unions representing about 20,000 members.

Truckers will be asked by Redwood City officials to stop using until such time as the planning Charter St. near a school site commission completes a truck routing plan for the city. The request was approved at this week's city council meeting.

Spreckels Will Filed for Probate

The will of the late Mrs. Eleanor Jolliffe Spreckels was filed for probate in superior court here by her daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Spreckels Walsh of Burlingame and Mrs. Anna Claudine Montgomery, San Mateo.

Mrs. Spreckels, wife of sugar magnate Rudolph Spreckels, died Feb. 22. No estimate was made as to the size of her estate.

The will filed here was drawn on Sept. 7, 1948. In it, Mrs. Spreckels left to her daughters the one-seventh interest she had in her mother's estate, and also all of her personal property.

The rest of the estate was left in trust to the two daughters. They were directed to use the income from the trust to care for Mrs. Spreckels' husband. The remainder of the trust income was willed in equal parts to the two daughters and to a granddaughter, Gertrude Eleanor Spreckels, San Mateo.

When Spreckels dies, the entire trust income is to be divided among the two daughters and the granddaughter.

Love Affair Ends . . . But Definitely

A man and a woman were arrested Sunday as the result of a broken love affair fight involving a beer bottle and knife at the Brass Door, 8 Linden St.

Arrested by Redwood City police on charges of exhibiting deadly weapons in a rude manner were William Bailey, 33, 238 Hemlock St., a construction worker; and Nell F. Glen, 30, 10½ Linden, a maid.

Police said they argued over a broken love affair and that Bailey hit the woman on the leg with a beer bottle whereupon she slashed him on the forehead with a knife.

The man was treated at Community Hospital and the woman at Palo Alto Hospital.

The altercation took place at 7:42 p.m.

DROP CLAIM

T. J. Callan's claim that he paid taxes on a lot in Redwood City twice was dropped from the city council agenda Monday night after City Atty. Cuthbert B. Currie stated that a search of records had shown that the taxes had been paid only once.

Mother Listens on Phone as Daughter and Two Men Are Slain in N.Y. Love Triangle

NEW YORK (AP)—Two men and a woman died in a blast of gunfire last night while a mother 3000 miles away in Hollywood listened by telephone to her daughter's dying screams for mercy.

Police said Emory Holt, 32, apparently suspicious of a love triangle, called his wife's mother in Hollywood, and said:

"I am sorry for what I am going to do."

With the telephone circuit still open, police said, he shot his attractive, brunette wife, Norma, 34, and David Whittaker, 32, and then killed himself.

San Carlos Tax Unit Sets Forum Session for Tonight

Questions will pop tonight at the city hall on three topics when the San Carlos unit of the Taxpayers League of San Mateo County holds an open forum at 8 o'clock open to the general public.

Formed to study factors that affect taxes, the group will focus its attention at this meeting to the following topics: (1) The proposed recreation project. (2) Proposed street and other civic improvements. (3) Should a tax ceiling be put on property tax rate in San Carlos similar to ceilings enacted by statutes and voted into constitutions by various states and local taxing agencies?

There will be no planned speeches and those in attendance will be permitted to discuss any phase of the three topics within a reasonable time limit. Several persons have been invited to answer some of the questions, especially those involving either of the first two topics.

"We feel that we are doing a public service for the citizens of San Carlos," stated Milton Albin, unit chairman, "in making it possible for them to voice their opinions or ask questions on subjects that have a close relationship with their taxes. It is too bad that such a forum was not made available to them in the immediate past when certain controversial issues flared up. From now on we will be on the alert and schedule an open forum whenever there arises civic development which definitely affects taxes, especially those developments that will not be referred to the voters.

"If the taxpayers want to put the brakes on further tax increases," he continued, "it will be necessary to exert a continual vigilance in a collective manner such as the Taxpayers' League offers."

J. J. Marshall, San Carlos member of the board, will outline briefly the league's policy statements, recently made public. He will also answer any questions directly concerned with the activity of the Taxpayers' League.

But Mrs. Homemaker—

What about prices that are not in the ads?

Checking food ads is a good way of learning about low prices. But the ads can't tell the whole story. At best they include only a small percentage of the items on your entire shopping list. So savings made on "specials" can easily be wiped out unless your other purchases are made at the right prices.

That's why the basic part of Safeway's pricing policy says that every item—we repeat—every item must be priced low. Consider what this means to you. It means savings right down the line . . . not just on our advertised specials, but on everything.

You'll find too, that Safeway is quick to pass on to customers the benefits of any reductions made possible by changes in market conditions. Watch for special markers on our shelves, calling attention to reductions.

Remember, it's easy to cancel savings from "specials" unless other prices are low, too. So start today to save at Safeway, where all prices are always low.

CALIFORNIA POLL: Call For Increased Home Building

Considerable hope is noticeable in the public's attitude toward the housing shortage, a survey just completed by the California Poll reveals. Although Californians still lean toward the view that home building is not going ahead fast enough today, they apparently feel that rapid progress has been made in the last two years.

Fewer persons are critical of the rate at which home building is going on today than perhaps at any time since the end of the war. Not two years ago the California Poll found the citizens of this state overwhelmingly displeased with the rate at which new homes were being buity. Sixty-six per cent of the persons questioned during a survey in September, 1947, held this view. Today's survey results show that this feeling has dropped to 44 per cent.

Nevertheless, the public's point of view is mainly one of complaints, chiefly about high costs. High costs of building, more than any other single cause, are felt today to have held down the pace of new home construction. Despite a generally less pessimistic attitude, the outcry over costs is louder at present among the industry's critics than it was at the time of the earlier survey.

There is also a tendency to consider it more vital today that governmental action be taken to bring prices and costs down or to build houses directly or to ease credit restrictions.

"Do you think home building is going ahead fast enough now, or do you think it is going too slow?" was the question put by California Poll interviewers to a representative cross-section of the state's citizens.

A comparison of today's figures with those obtained in the previous survey is as follows:

	March 1949	Sept. 1947
Fast enough	38%	29%
Too slow	44	66
No opinion	18	5

Strongest reactions to this question were found among people who rent their homes, World War II veterans, and people living in the large cities where the housing shortage is especially bad.

Interviewers then asked all those who said "too slow" this question: "What do you think should be done about it?" One of the important facts disclosed is that most complainers think the government is indispensable to the solution of this problem. In other words, more, rather than less, government action seems to be in mind. In the survey in September, 1947, suggestions took an opposite tack—toward fewer government restrictions and controls.

A full list of suggestions is as follows:

Reduce costs and prices	38%
Government housing	20
Easier loans	12
Increase production of materials	6
Government subsidies to builders	4
Fewer government restrictions and controls	3
Less politics	3
Control labor unions	3
Other suggestions	7
Don't know	22

(Figures add to more than 100 per cent because some persons mentioned several suggestions.)

Trio Nabbed After Flurry of Gunfire; One Man Escapes

BY ALEXANDER BODI

Three San Francisco bandits robbed a Skyline Blvd. cafe early Monday morning and walked into the arms of a dozen police officers who had laid a trap for them.

Captured, after a flurry of gunfire, were James Williams, 26, an automobile mechanic; Garland L. Theus, 29, a bootblack; and Eugene J. Lagomarsino, 25, a machinist. They were booked on charges of robbery.

A fourth man, the first to leave the cafe, bolted through the cordon of police, reached his car and sped while the officers were rounding up the other three.

The capture occurred during a flurry of gunfire, with two bullets believed to have been fired by one of the bandits. One bullet, fired from a pcliceman's gun, missed Dep. Sheriff John Hosford's head by two inches and struck the wall of a building.

The robbery occurred about 1:45 a.m. at the Silver Saddle, a restaurant and bar at the intersection of Skyline Blvd. and Coast Hwy.

Three San Francisco robbery detail inspectors, tipped off Monday night of the impending robbery, assembled a formidable array of local peace officers.

Participating in the roundup were the San Francisco officers, Lt. Martin Lee, Insp. G. C. Heeg and Insp. A. C. Carrasa; Deputy Sheriffs Hosford and Forrest Paull; Ocean Shore Police Chief William Regan; five Daly City officers and two California highway patrolmen.

The officers assembled about midnight and on foot surrounded the Silver Saddle.

About 1:20 a.m., a 1941 green Chevrolet convertible coupe drove into the parking area. One man got out, walked over to the car belonging to Daniel Preffer, 35, owner of the Silver Saddle. After checking the doors of the car and of the cafe, the man got back into the convertible, which drove up the road and stopped.

One of the white men got out, walked into the cafe and ordered a drink. He asked Preffer when the bar closed, was told 2 a.m.

The man left, and shortly returned with the others, including the two Negroes, Williams and Theus.

The four ordered Preffer from behind the bar and told him to lie down on the floor. Customers in the place were given similar orders.

Two Colma ranch workers, Guillermo Magana, 23, and Frank Ayada, 45, were slow to respond. Theus, armed with a blackjack, "worked them over," the officers reported. They were not seriously hurt.

The bandits filled two sacks with silver money, one containing $53 and the other $132. They took Magana's and Ayada's wallets, which contained only a few dollars, and also the wallet of Albert Adams, 31, San Francisco, which had $95 in it.

The unidentified man was the first to leave the building. He spotted the officers, bolted through their lines and escaped.

Theus, the second out, sprinted for the corner of the building, with the officers shooting at him. It was at this point that the bullet nearly hit Hosford.

As Theus rounded the corner, he ran into a group of officers headed by Regan, carrying a shotgun. Theus struggled for a while, gave up. Regan said that Theus banged his head into the butt of the officer's shotgun.

The two other men, in the meantime, had dashed back into the Silver Saddle. Lagomarsino overturned two tables in a corner and barricaded himself behind them, while Williams ran into the ladies' rest room, bolting the door.

The San Francisco officers fired into the barricade, and Lagomarsino dropped the .38-caliber nickel plated revolver he was carrying, raised his hands and surrendered. The gun had not been fired.

Deputy Paull tried the ladies' room door, found it bolted, and asked Regan to cover him with the shotgun. As Regan stood on the alert, ready to fire, Paull kicked in the door.

Williams came out with his hands raised. His gun, a .32-caliber revolver, contained two empty shells. The officers said they did not know when the gun had been fired.

EPA Truck Driver Fined $100 in Atherton

An 80-mile-an-hour ride down Middlefield Rd. Feb. 26 cost an East Palo Alto truck driver a $100 fine in Atherton Police Court this week.

Everett Hubert Hemphill of the Sequoia Auto Court, East Palo Alto, was found guilty of a reckless driving charge by Judge John W. Dinkelspiel.

Hemphill was arrested Feb. 26 by Atherton police who said he was doing 80 while driving south on Middlefield.

OK Aerial Photographs Of Friendly Acres Area

Aerial photographs of Friendly Acres, to cost $50, were approved this week for the planning commission by the city council. The photographs are to be used in an attempt to find a way to install additional streets. Lots in the area are very long and some owners want to cut them but can't unless they can provide a street frontage.

RC Youth Injured In Fall From Auto

Mrs. Esther Wilson found that her own son, Eugene, was the victim in an accident Sunday when she stopped her car to give assistance.

Driving her car near Fuller and Arguello Sts., she saw an injured lad being dragged from the street. She stopped her car in order to offer assistance and found that the youngster was her son, who fell from a moving car while delivering a morning newspaper route.

Redwood City police gave this account of the accident:

Wilson, a 14-year-old Sequoia High School student, was riding on the running board of a car driven by Edward F. Deto, 16, 523 Stanford Ave. The car was moving southward on Arguello.

When Deto attempted to turn left onto Fuller young Wilson fell off, hitting his head on the pavement. The impact cracked his jaw and caused the youth to suffer concussion.

He was incoherent Sunday at Palo Alto Hospital but had improved by Monday after a restful night. X-ray photographs were planned to determine whether he has a fractured skull.

Young Wilson is the son of Chet E. Wilson, 243 Samson St., the assistant Boy Scout executive for San Mateo County.

Mrs. Wilson said her son usually delivered the papers from a motor scooter. Since that was out of order Sunday, he persuaded Deto to drive him around the route in a car belonging to F. J. Deto, his father.

SC Kiwanis Plans Vocational Guide

A vocational guidance program for high school students, sponsored by the San Carlos Kiwanis Club, got under way this week at a meeting of the club with an address by Dr. E. N. Bush of Stanford University, and the formulation of plans for a vocational survey of pupils from San Carlos and Belmont at Sequoia High School.

Through the cooperation of Principal Thor Krogh, vocational questionnaires will be given out to all pupils from the San Carlos-Belmont area.

After the questionnaires are screened, pupils will be assigned to members of the San Carlos club, representing various trades and professions.

He listed six guiding principles in choosing a vocation.

1. The vocation should be chosen by the individual himself.
2. If a person starts in a vocation he does not like, it is all right to make a change.
3. A person should take full advantage of all vocational guidance he can get.
4. A decision should not be made too early.
5. Schools offer fundamentals in vocational guidance which students should use in trying to make a decision.
6. A person should realize the limitations of programs in use.

RC Captain Aids Rescue Of Seaman

A navy seaman stationed at Alameda Naval Air Station Monday owed his life to a Redwood City party boat captain and his passengers after he miscalculated his parachute jump into the Pacific Ocea, 1 2miles from shore instead of two miles he had planned.

James M. Coates, 22, was rescued; and none too soon, 12 miles off Princeton by a party boat belonging to Ray Gardner of Princeton and captained by Ray Davis of 3 Woodrow St.

Davis, who has been a captain on the Gardner boats on weekends for more than a year and plans to quit his job as a mechanic here this weekend to work at it fulltime, said that he and his party of 22 were out about four miles and were preparing to come in about 2 p.m. yesterday when three airplanes circled overhead and dipped.

The party decided that someone was is distress and followed the planes for eight miles. The planes circled arour.d Coates and the boat passengers pulled him aboard. Coates said "I'm trying to swim," and passed out.

Davis said the seaman was almost frozen.

"I never saw anyone so black and blue," he declared. "He couldn't have lasted more than five or 10 minutes longer."

Coates was unable to explain what happened until he reached the air station dispensary. There he told of planning to parachute from a plane a couple of miles from shore. Instead he landed so far out that he couldn't see shore and was swimming the wrong way when rescued. He had leaped from a height of 5000 feet from a private plane.

A life raft was dropped from the plane to Coates but it didn't open. It landed some 500 yards away from him, as did life belts which were dropped to him.

Coates had been planning the jump for months and for preparation had taken two-hour showers in ice cold water and frequently jumped into the bay to get accustomed to the water conditions. Coates broke his foot two months ago when he made a trial jump from a plane over Tracy.

Davis said that Coates had been in the water about 45 minutes when he was rescued. It took the boat about 18 to 20 minutes to get to him after the planes circled overhead, he said. The party boat was slowed down by a tug boat which crossed in front of it, Davis reported.

New Pair of Shoes Must Have Pinched

Reed Butler, 24-year-old Menlo Park war veteran, was back in the county jail Monday.

His conscience was responsible.

Butler, 975 Roble Ave., was placed on probation on Jan. 10 after he pleaded guilty to an assault with a deadly weapons charge arising from his slugging of a taxicab driver, Louis F. Proto, on Nov. 10.

Sunday Butler walked into the office of officer Don Helbush.

"Here I am, lock me up," he announced.

Helbush questioned him, then turned him over to Frank Marlowe, criminal investigator in the district attorney's office.

According to Marlowe, Butler got a job in Karl's Shoe Stare, 2421 Broadway, on Jan. 27.

On Feb. 27, a Sunday, Butler got the keys to the store from the store operator, Alonzo Snellings. He went in and dressed the windows.

After the work was finished, Butler took $326 from a box under a cash register, put on a new pair of shoes, and left his old ones in the store, Marlowe said.

Butler then took the keys back to Snellings, went to San Francisco for a day and then to Los Angeles. He returned yesterday.

Marlowe said Butler told him he didn't know what became of the money. He is booked at the jail on a theft charge.

A Naughty Thief Takes Nice Undies

A bizarre brassiere bandit made off with a good haul in San Mateo Monday night.

A thief entered the home of Mrs. F. Hallburton, 219 Huron Ave., and stole one dozen nightgowns, a dozen slips, 15 pairs of panties, 8 brassieres, three dress shields and several other items of women's underclothing.

Mrs. Hallburton told San Mateo police the thief apparently entered her home sometime between 7 and 10 p.m.

Area Gets Shakes, Light Loss

No damage was reported in Redwood City and the Peninsula Wednesday from the "good sized" earthquake felt here at 4:29 a.m. and a much smaller one at 4:57 a.m.

The earthquake was felt for 200 miles along the Central California Coastline. There were indications the quake centered in the Hollister area about 70 miles south of here, where plate glass windows were broken and canned goods overturned in grocery stores.

Residents here reported they were awakened by the first temblor when it shook their beds severely.

One Redwood City man said a vase fell from a radio beside his bed and struck him on the head.

California Highway Patrolmen Roy Edwards and Tom Ganley reported they were driving up Skyline Blvd. at the time of the largest quake and their car almost ran into a ditch. They thought something had gone wrong with their car until they realized it was an earthquake.

The burglary alarm at the Westlake Furniture Co. in Daly City was set off by the temblor.

Dep. Sheriff Milton Minehan said his bed is on casters and it started sliding across the room.

The offices of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. and the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. here said there were no reports of "incidents" resulting from the quake.

Telephone switchboards swayed in some localities.

One woman, living beside precipitous Telegraph Hill in San Francisco, reported to police "prowlers are on the roof." Investigation showed the "prowlers" were rocks shaken loose from the hill.

One house in the San Francisco Mission Dist. reported a water pipe broken.

Several cracked windows were reported at Santa Cruz, according to Associated Press.

The quake knocked a needle off the seismograph at the University of Santa Clara. The Rev. John A. Webber, Santa Clara seismologist, said it lasted 11 minutes on the record and apparently was centered in the Hollister region. He said there was a slight after-shock at 5:57.30 a.m. He timed the first at 4:28.50.

Light fixtures at the RCA office and the telephone building in the center of San Francisco swayed back and forth six inches. A long distance operator, asking shakily if "there will be any more," reported switch boards "wiggled and shook like they were coming over."

Hundreds of householders along the beach area of San Francisco were shaken awake and hastened to telephone newspaper offices, police and fire departments.

Mill Valley, in Marin County north of the Golden Gate, felt the shocks strongly, as did the East Bay communities of Richmond, Berkeley, Oakland and Alameda.

South San Francisco police reported that scores of burglar alarms were set off.

Sacramento, in the center of the Sacramento Valley; Stockton at the north end of the San Joaquin Valley, Petaluma and Fairfield in Solano County reported feeling the shocks distinctly. Fresno residents reported feeling the shock.

Santa Rosa, 60 miles directly north of San Francisco, reported the quake was not felt there.

$300,000 Bail In Holdup Case

Bail totaling $150,000 cash or $300,000 bond was set Tuesday for three San Francisco hoodlums trapped Monday when they held up a Skyline Blvd. bar.

The bail was set by Judge Edward Ryan, substituting for Justice of the Peace John J. Fahey, after complaints were issued charging each of the trio with four counts of robbery.

The men, held at the county jail, are James Williams, 26; Garland L. Theus, 29, and Eugene J. Lagomarsino, 25.

They were captured by San Mateo County and San Francisco officers at the Silver Saddle, a cafe at the intersection of Skyline Blvd. and Coast Hwy. near the San Francisco County line.

The San Francisco police were tipped off about the robbery, and with the others laid a trap for the bandits. A fourth man involved in the robbery escaped, and a John Doe complaint was signed against him.

The four robbery counts were for the holdup of the cafe owner, Daniel Preffer, and three customers.

Abatement Proceedings Carried on Agenda

Abatement proceedings against three Redwood City properties were carried on the city council agenda this week with no action.

The propertes are Beeger Tannery, the Perry property on Main St. and the A. G. Frank property. All are being torn down.

COURT ROUNDUP: Fresno Man Sentenced to Year In County Jail for Stealing $5, Pen and Pencil Set

LeRoy Wilson, 31-year-old Fresno cook, was sentenced to one year in the county jail Monday afternoon for stealing $5 and a pen and pencil set from a Redwood City furniture store.

The sentence was imposed by Superior Judge A. R. Cotton in Redwood City.

Wilson, who surrendered himself to San Leandro police and admitted the burglary, was not eligible for probation because of a prior felony conviction.

The cash and pen and pencil set were taken from the Gold & Gluskin store on Jan. 27.

Also in Judge Cotton's court, James Hicks and his wife, Arlie, of Los Altos pleaded "not guilty" to bilking the Guy F. Atkinson Co., South San Francisco, of $1114 in a "payroll pading" scheme.

They are accused on six felony counts—four of forgery, one of conspiracy to cheat and defraud the company and one of conspiracy to commit forgery.

Mrs. Hicks' brother, Charles E. Coombs, also wanted in connection with the crime, is still at large.

According to Leo Englert, deputy district attorney, the total of money taken from the company in the "payroll padding" by Coombs, who was employed as a timekeeper, may run as high as $11,000.

The Hicks are free on $5000 cash bail each. They will be tried before a jury in superior court on April 26.

William B. Sullivan, 27, San Francisco salesman, was arraigned before Judge Cotton on a charge of raping a 25-year-old San Francisco girl, Betty Jane Rothgery, near Sharp Park on Jan. 29.

He will enter his plea on March 21.

The judge also arraigned Carl Berry, 25, 209 Poplar Ave., San Bruno, a welder, on two counts of statutory rape.

Berry is accused of raping a 15-year-old Woodside girl.

He will enter his plea next Monday.
